PURCHASE OF MOUNT VERNON.

AMERICAN WOMEN BUYING WASHINGTON'S TOMB AND HOMESTEAD.

THE tomb of Washington, the chamber in which he died, the fields and trees he loved and longed for, while at the head of an army and a nation, are now within reach of the women of America. It is fit that this place, sacred to our whole country, the one spot around which the reverence of a continent is centred, should be kept and tended by the daughters of the women who honored him, and whose homes he protected. There are few among us who cannot recall a grandmother's placid look as she repeated the oft-told story of his passing through the villages and the streets of our miniature cities of that day. In some places, young girls, draped in white and bearing flowers, formed the line through which he walked to the courthouse. We know how he looked and spoke to them, through the bright memory of some dearly loved relative, who then stood the youngest among those young heads. These are household treasures with us of the third generation. Are they not sufficient to enlist our hearts, hands, and time in the work before us?

Two hundred acres have been purchased by the Mount Vernon Association of the women of the Union, and possession is to be given as soon as we have paid $200,000 for it. Through the exertions of a few women in Virginia, who have worked on for years to accomplish their affectionate purpose, the first payment has been made. We must come forward to do our share. Let every woman interest those around her, and collect their subscriptions. In our rich and popular State, few will be found, man, woman, or child, who will not gladly give one dollar towards this dear and sacred object. To make the effort successful, we believe it is only necessary to have it generally known.

Subscriptions, we name, will be received at the office of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association, Cooper Institute, Astor Place, and whose P. O. address is New York City P. O., State, D. The names, as proprietors, will be registered on the books at Mount Vernon. It is hoped that a few months will show our earnestness, and give us possession of the estate on the 22d February, 1859.

Appeal to the Ladies of the State of New York for the purchase of Mount Vernon.

THE "MOUNT VERNON LADIES' ASSOCIATION OF THE UNION" has been incorporated by the State of Virginia, and the necessary powers have been given to it, in its corporate capacity, to purchase and hold two hundred acres of the Mount Vernon Estate, including the Mansion and Tomb of Washington, the Garden, Grounds, and Landing, on the Potomac River.

The sum to be raised for the purchase and future improvement of the property is limited to five hundred thousand dollars.

A Constitution and By-Laws, under this Charter, have been adopted, by which the business of the Association is to be managed by a Council, composed of a Presiding Officer or Regent, and of Vice-Regents, selected one from each State of the Union.

Miss ANNA FLEMING CUNNINGHAM, of South Carolina, who for many years has been engaged in this enterprise, and through whose zeal and energy the Charter was procured, and present funds collected, has been appointed to preside over the Council as Regent.

The Vice-Regent for the State of New York is Miss MARY MORRIS HAMILTON, of Westchester County.

MONOCROME OF WASHINGTON.—The design for an Engraving from "Peale's Washington," as formerly announced by the author, not being realized according to his intention, all thought of it, for a time, was suspended. As that object could not be accomplished by confiding the task to another hand, he has been induced to undertake, to a limited extent, a more effective substitute.—THE HEAD, FULL SIZE, finished in Crayon, on a Lithographic ground. These Monocromes, by himself, from his original Portraits, he trusts will be favorably appreciated. To be had at WILLIAMS, STEVENS, WILLIAMS & Co., 833 Broadway, N. Y.

Schools.

PRIVATE TUITION AND BOARD IN THE COUNTRY.

Rev. and Mrs. H. L. MYRICK, of BROOKLYN, Conn., receive into their family several children to instruct according to the wishes of parents; giving to each particular attention and affectionate care. In addition to the elementary and higher branches of Study, tuition will be given in vocal music, piano-forte, and drawing.

Their home is in a retired, pleasant, and healthy location, accessible from New York and Boston via Norwich and Worcester R.R., and offers excellent inducements to those who wish to place young persons of either sex under responsible superintendence and favorable influences.
